

A REIGN OF TERROR.

The Arbitrary Course of the Russian Police in Attempting to Suppress the Nihilist Plots.

Mysterious Arrests Made at All Hours of the Day and Night.

THE LAST EFFORT TO KILL THE Czar

Has Resulted in an Increase of the Severity of the Authorities.

Russia is in a more distressed state than ever. The last attempt to kill the Czar a veritable reign of terror has prevailed. The police have arrested a large number of suspected Nihilists.

NEW YORK, May 29.—The following letter has been received from Ivan Surinoff, a Russian Nihilist, by a friend in this city. To escape the vigilance of the police it had to be taken to the frontier to be posted:

My dear friend, the Russian police are prevailing in our beautiful city, and a cloud blacker than the blackness of midnight hangs over our heads. No one is sure of his life, for at any moment the storm of automatic thunder may descend and sweep thousands, the innocent as well as the guilty, into the whirlwind of its tremendous wrath. That some terrible event is about to happen we are all aware, and the people, convulsed with the agonies of suspense, are awaiting its fulfillment—not with patience, but with a nervous terror. No one knows the moment when the revolver will be raised from the arms of loving friends, and after being pushed into the black-painted conveyance for criminals will in a short time find himself within the confines of the Petropavlovsk fortress.

These black cartridges have rattled through the streets during the long hours of the otherwise silent night, sending a shiver to the soul of every man. Even your friend Ivan, "stout of heart" as you always called me, has trembled at the thought of the gunpowder which would be the cause of his death. He has been arrested, and he is now in the hands of the police.

No one dares openly to question the cause of this sudden activity on the part of the despotic police, nor the reason for their continued acts of brutality toward unoffending people. The press is alike silent as the grave. No word has appeared in print in regard to the attempt made on the life of the Czar in the garden yesterday. Rumor says the Czar was shot at twice by an officer of the Imperial Guard, and that he was wounded in the left arm, and that afterward the officer shot himself in the temple and was taken away by the police in an unconscious condition. His name is believed to be a Nihilist, and he is now in the hands of the police. A large number of other persons have been arrested, and they are now in the hands of the police.

It is known that at least 100 officers of the army are confined to the fortress, and that the police are making a search for more. The police are making a search for more. The police are making a search for more.

A FIXED JURY.

Friends of Captain Dawson Afraid That the Panel Which is to Try His Murderer Has Been Tampered With.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 29.—A good deal of comment is caused here by the peculiar composition of the jury panel which was drawn to-day in the Sessions Court. The panel is to try the case of the murder of Captain F. W. Dawson. The court meets on the third Monday in June. Out of the 36 jurymen drawn 14 are negroes, a proportion unprecedented since 1876, when the negroes had control of the courts. There are no negroes to be tried for murder at the coming term. Some of the friends of the murdered officer think that the jury box has been tampered with in the interest of the negro lynchings. They say that the proportion of negroes on the jury is unusual and unprecedented.

It is well known that shortly before his death Captain Dawson had incurred the enmity of a number of the leading colored preachers by an editorial article which was accredited to him. In the article in question he urged Governor Richardson to pardon the negro lynchings. In the county where he was under sentence of death for lynching a white man who had assaulted a negro girl. It was intimated, in the article that while it was done, that virtue was not held to high and that among colored women as among the whites, yet the principle was the same, and the chastity of the colored women should be guarded as jealously as that of the white women.

Soon after the publication of this article the negro preachers held a meeting and decided to boycott Captain Dawson. Three of the leading negro preachers, who went into the boycott—one Methodist, one Baptist and one Episcopalian. The boycott consisted in denouncing the editor and his paper, and in refusing to attend his church services and giving them to the opposition paper. These are the reasons that cause uneasiness among the friends of the murdered officer. The feeling is very intense.

FOR PROHIBITION.

The United Presbyterian Assembly Viciously Denounces the License System—Special Reference is Made to Pennsylvania—The Body Adjourns.

SPRINGFIELD, O., May 29.—The United Presbyterian General Assembly was dissolved this afternoon at 5 o'clock. It was decided that Presbyteries may release an elder, if it deems such action necessary to the spiritual welfare of the congregation. Appropriations were made for the ensuing year as follows:

Foreign missions	$12,000
Home missions	71,100
Education	4,000
Church extension	40,000
Ministerial relief	10,000
Assembly's fund	3,000

John S. McKee, of Butler Presbytery, was appointed a delegate to the Synod of Western Pennsylvania, which meets at Erie, Pa., in September. A commission on the moral and religious interests of the army and navy was appointed, as follows: Rev. James M. McKee, D. D., Rev. William M. Gibson, D. D., Rev. Robert Walz, D. D., Judge J. H. McCulloch and Colonel D. W. Houston, Judge McCulloch to be Corresponding Secretary.

A strong pastoral letter, endorsing the proposed Constitutional amendment in Pennsylvania prohibiting the liquor traffic, to be voted on June 18, was adopted. A copy of this letter is to be furnished to every U. P. church in Pennsylvania on either June 9 or 16. The following was adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That any form of license or taxation of the liquor traffic is unscriptural in principle and contrary to good government, and in violation of the moral and religious principles of the church, and that every Christian philanthropist and patriot.

There was a difference of opinion, however, as to the manner in which this should be done. A large number opposed a "third party."

Give careful heed to reductions! Whether they are anything to your advantage depends on what the goods are and what former prices were.

They may mean prices brought down from a quite high price, and not be as low then as a fair price. It doesn't follow that because they're reduced from a former price, they're worth paying. If it's mean clothing, it's high at a mean price.

We seek to give the lowest price we can for the highest quality we can. Reliable goods bear low prices.

KAUFMANN'S

Great $10 Men's Suit

Sale Has Taken

The Town by Storm.

From all parts of the city and surrounding country the people come to take advantage of this remarkable bargain sale. The news travels like a wild fire that Kaufmann's are selling genuine $18 and $20 Suits for $10. Everybody who buys one of these suits goes home delighted with his bargain and tells his friends and neighbors about it. They, too, come and purchase, and in turn, send their acquaintances who also make a bee line for the wonderful $10 Suit sale and return home all smiles and packages. Thus the multiplying process keeps on, and every hour the rush increases. There'll be no let up, either, until every one of these fine $10 Suits has been disposed of. These goods, as previously announced, were purchased by us from a largely overstocked manufacturer of fine clothing. The price we paid for them averages $9.25, which actually is less than the value of the material and trimmings of each suit. Seventy-five cents is all we expect to make per suit, hence $10 is the figure at which we offer you choice from the entire line. Some of the very best patterns and styles are still here, but don't delay, if you want them, as the rush is big, and there is no telling how soon these wonderful bargains will be sold. A few days, at the furthest, will finish them.

To give you an idea of what these suits are we need only say that they are made of such choice and fashionable materials as Wide Wales, Scotchies, Pinhead Worsted, blue, black and brown Cordscrew Worsted, light, dark and medium stripes, checks, plaids and mixtures, etc. There are suits turned out daily by the Pittsburg merchant tailors at from $30 to $35 which are not one whit better than these goods at $10. Depend upon it this is the chance of chances, the opportunity of opportunities for gentlemen in need of suits. Every man should avail himself of this offer. They are suits cheap enough for the laborer and fine enough for the banker. Let nobody, therefore, stand back.

FINE CLOTHES CAUSE TROUBLE.

A Young Spaniard Arrested for Wearing the Suit of a Marquis.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Hermann Bollini, a good-looking young Italian, who is the son of a wealthy man, was arrested yesterday for wearing a suit of clothes which he had stolen from a Marquis. He was arrested by the police court this morning against Leonard Orvis, a young Spaniard, whom he charged with grand larceny. Bollini and his wife live with the Marquis at 227 East Fourteenth street. The Marquis is an old man reported to be wealthy. He has a great many expensive suits of clothes and fine sets of silk underwear which were made for him in Paris and stamped with his crest.

A few days ago Bollini and others saw Orvis on the street wearing clothes which they recognized as belonging to the Marquis. These were summer clothes which the Marquis had packed away, and so the clothes had not been discovered. An investigation showed that a good deal of the old Marquis' clothes and some of Bollini's articles, Bollini says, was $350.

In the police court Orvis indignantly denied that he had stolen the clothing. He said that he had been sent to by a charming Spanish lady with whom he had lived prior to her marriage to Bollini. Orvis was held in $500 bail.

What hundreds of people say must be true, and now Miss Mada Frisch wishes to tell what has been done for her. Her stomach had caused her untold suffering and pain for years, her appetite was poor and she experienced such a burning and distressing feeling in her stomach. Although she tried to be careful of the kind of food she ate, yet nothing would remain on her stomach, for she would vomit up her food regularly within half an hour after eating. The cathartic secretion that formed in her head caused much pain over her eyes, and she was almost constantly trying to raise the tough, tenacious mucus that kept dropping from her head into her throat. Her bowels were constipated, and she was very nervous. She began treatment with the physicians of the Polytechnic Medical and Surgical Institute at 325 Penn avenue on March 11, and on May 15 declared herself cured. She says: "I wish to state to the public and my new friends that I have been cured of this dreadful disease, dyspepsia, and gladly recommend these physicians to all suffering from these diseases. I feel as if I have been cured."

PEACE AND TREMBLING AT COURT.

The story of these terrible scenes is told in whispers and only among friends. Most persons maintain silence, fearing to speak lest they be an enemy, and almost every face bears a look of deepest sadness. Members of the secret police are the only persons whom the gift of language has not forsaken, and they infect the hotels and public places, openly expressing their feelings, apparently with all sincerity. Their talk is but a snare to allure their victims. Yet our people (the Nihilists), who are aware, are always on their guard, and refrain from giving utterance to their thoughts. We work in the solemn hours of the night and in the day we are busy with the great city. The poor peasant from the inland parts of the empire is the one most easily led into the trap.

The Czar has lost all control of himself, and acts more like an infuriated madman than a being possessing reason and power, and the officers of his court tremble for the safety of their lives and fear to approach him. His orders are more than ever capricious, as if his tyranny would crush the feeling out of our people. The Czarina is completely broken down, and has gone to the Yar-Slovenska (Czar's village). The Czar, after attending a mass in St. Isaac's Cathedral, took an express train and also returned to his palace. NEW YORK, May 29.—At 5:15 this afternoon Bertha Schreyer, a German married woman 25 years old, was shot four times by John Berken, of 188 Sixth avenue, and was taken to the Manhattan Hospital in a dying condition. He was 32 years of age.

KAUFMANN'S

Great $10 Men's Suit

Sale Has Taken

The Town by Storm.

From all parts of the city and surrounding country the people come to take advantage of this remarkable bargain sale. The news travels like a wild fire that Kaufmann's are selling genuine $18 and $20 Suits for $10. Everybody who buys one of these suits goes home delighted with his bargain and tells his friends and neighbors about it. They, too, come and purchase, and in turn, send their acquaintances who also make a bee line for the wonderful $10 Suit sale and return home all smiles and packages. Thus the multiplying process keeps on, and every hour the rush increases. There'll be no let up, either, until every one of these fine $10 Suits has been disposed of. These goods, as previously announced, were purchased by us from a largely overstocked manufacturer of fine clothing. The price we paid for them averages $9.25, which actually is less than the value of the material and trimmings of each suit. Seventy-five cents is all we expect to make per suit, hence $10 is the figure at which we offer you choice from the entire line. Some of the very best patterns and styles are still here, but don't delay, if you want them, as the rush is big, and there is no telling how soon these wonderful bargains will be sold. A few days, at the furthest, will finish them.

To give you an idea of what these suits are we need only say that they are made of such choice and fashionable materials as Wide Wales, Scotchies, Pinhead Worsted, blue, black and brown Cordscrew Worsted, light, dark and medium stripes, checks, plaids and mixtures, etc. There are suits turned out daily by the Pittsburg merchant tailors at from $30 to $35 which are not one whit better than these goods at $10. Depend upon it this is the chance of chances, the opportunity of opportunities for gentlemen in need of suits. Every man should avail himself of this offer. They are suits cheap enough for the laborer and fine enough for the banker. Let nobody, therefore, stand back.

A WORD TO THE WISE IS SUFFICIENT.

THIS IS THE WORD: "COME."

PEACE AND TREMBLING AT COURT.

The story of these terrible scenes is told in whispers and only among friends. Most persons maintain silence, fearing to speak lest they be an enemy, and almost every face bears a look of deepest sadness. Members of the secret police are the only persons whom the gift of language has not forsaken, and they infect the hotels and public places, openly expressing their feelings, apparently with all sincerity. Their talk is but a snare to allure their victims. Yet our people (the Nihilists), who are aware, are always on their guard, and refrain from giving utterance to their thoughts. We work in the solemn hours of the night and in the day we are busy with the great city. The poor peasant from the inland parts of the empire is the one most easily led into the trap.

The Czar has lost all control of himself, and acts more like an infuriated madman than a being possessing reason and power, and the officers of his court tremble for the safety of their lives and fear to approach him. His orders are more than ever capricious, as if his tyranny would crush the feeling out of our people. The Czarina is completely broken down, and has gone to the Yar-Slovenska (Czar's village). The Czar, after attending a mass in St. Isaac's Cathedral, took an express train and also returned to his palace.

DOUBLE FATAL SHOTS.

Another Double Tragedy Added to the Long List of Such Deaths.

NEW YORK, May 29.—At 5:15 this afternoon Bertha Schreyer, a German married woman 25 years old, was shot four times by John Berken, of 188 Sixth avenue, and was taken to the Manhattan Hospital in a dying condition. The tragedy occurred at the woman's home, 403 West One Hundred and Forty-second street. The murderer, after the shooting, turned the revolver on himself and blew out his brains. He was 32 years of age.

CURED OF DYSPEPSIA AND CATARRH.

What the Bakers Say.

There is an old saying that the proof of the pudding lies in the eating. The best proof of the excellence of the famous "Iron City Brand" of flour, made by Whitney & Co., the sterling millers, lies in the fact that the bakers of Allegheny county are gradually adopting its use on account of its solid qualities. Give it a trial.

What hundreds of people say must be true, and now Miss Mada Frisch wishes to tell what has been done for her. Her stomach had caused her untold suffering and pain for years, her appetite was poor and she experienced such a burning and distressing feeling in her stomach. Although she tried to be careful of the kind of food she ate, yet nothing would remain on her stomach, for she would vomit up her food regularly within half an hour after eating. The cathartic secretion that formed in her head caused much pain over her eyes, and she was almost constantly trying to raise the tough, tenacious mucus that kept dropping from her head into her throat. Her bowels were constipated, and she was very nervous. She began treatment with the physicians of the Polytechnic Medical and Surgical Institute at 325 Penn avenue on March 11, and on May 15 declared herself cured. She says: "I wish to state to the public and my new friends that I have been cured of this dreadful disease, dyspepsia, and gladly recommend these physicians to all suffering from these diseases. I feel as if I have been cured."

"MADA FRISCH, Economy, Pa."

Have you been watching the cure that the physicians of the Polytechnic Medical and Surgical Institute have been publishing for the last year? Have you called to satisfy yourself that they have cured these people, whose testimonies are before you? Do you know why they invite such criticism on their work? It is because they know what they can do for others, and then call on them and they will tell you what they can do for you. Do you know why they invite such criticism on their work? Office hours, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., and 6 to 8 P. M. Sundays, 10 to 4 P. M. Consultation free. Treatment also by correspondence.
